The Meynell Ingram Arms has a fascinating past that's closely tied to the Meynell Ingram family and nearby Hoar Cross Hall. It started life as a 17th-century farmhouse before becoming a pub known as the Shoulder of Mutton. That all changed in the 1860s when Hugo Meynell Ingram married Emily Charlotte Wood and Hoar Cross Hall, as we know it today was built, marking the beginning of a new era for the pub too. Since then, it's been through plenty of changes, but it's always kept its charm. Today, it's a warm and welcoming place where history and hospitality go hand in hand.

Cheers!
